What is the GLA?

Mission

Since 1935, the Geneva Lake Association (GLA) has served as a guardian of Geneva Lake and its surrounding area. GLA's mission is to help inform and educate its membership on a variety of topics related to the conservation, preservation, environmental integrity, and general welfare of Geneva Lake. GLA advances its mission by providing timely and issue-centered communications to a wide membership base of area residents and local businesses.

GLA services and benefits include

- Attentive monitoring of Geneva Lake area issues and concerns through the GLA Executive Secretary and its 27-member Board of Directors
- Annual publication of the GLA Directory of residents and pier numbers distributed to nearly 600 member families and businesses
- Annual updating of the pier numbering system for member convenience and to enhance lake safety
- Periodic distribution to members and friends of the GLA-produced newsletter, the Geneva Lake Guardian, and GLA Waves email communications on important developments impacting Geneva Lake
- Sponsoring the GLA Annual Meeting each summer to provide a forum for members to hear directly from local leaders and stakeholders who address current issues affecting Geneva Lake

Background

Over its 90-year history, GLA has grown to a broad membership of residents and businesses representing every village, association, inlet, bay and shore path area around Geneva Lake as well as members from the larger Lake Geneva and Walworth County communities. Residents on and off the lake look to the GLA as one of the lake-wide organizations in place to keep residents current on issues of common concern or interest.

Because of the size of the area and the wide, varied interests of its growing population, the GLA Board includes 27 volunteer Directors from all corners of the lake. This group, plus several retired (Honorary) Directors, the GLA Officers and its Executive Secretary, form the GLA governing structure.

GLA's foundation is its dues-paying membership base, which is the only organization of its kind around the lake and is the sole source of financial support. All contributions are tax deductible as the GLA is a 501(c)(3) tax exempt organization under IRS and State regulations. GLA carries out its responsibilities with a paid part-time Executive Secretary working within an operating budget to provide services and benefits to its growing membership.

GLA will continue to serve and support the interests of the wider Geneva Lake community through collaboration with other lake-serving groups whose missions are compatible, such as the Geneva Lake Water Safety Patrol, the Geneva Lake Environmental Agency, the Kishwaukee Nature Conservancy, the Geneva Lake Conservancy, the Geneva Lake Level Corporation, the Water Alliance, and the GLA affiliated Environmental Education Foundation.

What has GLA done for me lately?

The following are a few good examples of GLA's participation through communication and education in events of significant importance to Geneva Lake over the years:

- Keeping the membership current about the new developments and ongoing efforts of the Southeast Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission finalize the Geneva Lake Management Plan issued in April 2026
- Providing water quality-related educational updates to inform the membership about potential impacts to Geneva Lake arising from such concerns as wake-enhanced boating, harmful algae blooms, aquatic invasive species, phosphorus runoff and other environmental concerns
- Financially supporting lake management plan development and other water quality initiatives including for various cover crop experiments to help local farmers reduce phosphorus runoff to the lake
- Taking an active role in preventing commercial use of the lake shore path
- Revising and posting rules and signage for use of the lake shore path, in coordination with selected property owners and municipalities
- Helping with the financing and acquisition of the CD3 equipment, as part of a multi-agency experiment to reduce invasive species from entering the lake by making this boat cleaning machine available for use at municipal launches
- Securing funding for a Fire Boat for Linn Township to provide additional support to all area fire departments
- Supporting the efforts of the Geneva Lake Level Corporation to inform the membership of new developments related to maintenance of the lake's water level and dam
- Ongoing collaboration with the 46-year affiliation with its sister organization, the Environmental Education Foundation, as it provides scholarships and grants to lake area students and educators for environmentally centered studies and experiences
- Hosting an annual forum each summer for members to hear from local leaders on current issues related to property trends, water quality, boating safety and area-wide conservation efforts, among other topics
- Participating in improved collaborations among a multitude of local and statewide organizations to improve awareness and facilitate sharpened and streamlined responses to water quality concerns including the Water Alliance, Wisconsin Lakes, Walworth County Lakes Association, Coalition to Protect Wisconsin's Lakes and Rivers and the Environmental Education Foundation
- Participating in improved coordination activities among a multitude of local and statewide organizations to improve awareness and facilitate sharpened and streamlined responses to issues of current concern

Geneva Lake Comprehensive Lake Management Plan

The Geneva Lake Management Plan (GLMP) was finalized in April 2026 and posted to SEWRPC's website. See <https://www.sewrpc.org/SEWRPCFiles/Publications/CAPR/capr-060-3rd-ed-lake-management-plan-for-geneva-lake.pdf>. This is the third comprehensive lake management plan for Geneva Lake with others published in 1985 and 2008. The plan provides targeted, specific recommendations to improve Geneva Lake, its tributaries, and the ecological conditions throughout the watershed. Below is an executive summary that provides an excellent overview of the key plan findings.

The GLMP's conclusion notes "...Geneva Lake has significant economic, aesthetic, quality-of-life, and ecological value. Protecting these values requires active management from dedicated stakeholders. Lake stakeholders should utilize this plan to help implement practices and guide policy decisions that will help protect Geneva Lake... ..Implementing this plan will help protect the quality of the Lake and ensure that it remains a treasured resource to enjoy."

GLA is continuing its work with the Water Alliance, led by Tom Nichols, Charles Colman, and Mark Lillie, to assess GLMP's recommendations and evaluate how best to implement the priority tasks. We will keep GLA's members posted on key new developments regarding the GLMP.

Thanks to all of you for your continuing support to protect Geneva Lake's water quality.

—President E. Lynn Grayson

Executive Summary

(See the Official Management Plan including an executive summary with graphics at <https://www.sewrpc.org/SEWRPCFiles/Publications/CAPR/capr-060-3rd-ed-lake-management-plan-for-geneva-lake.pdf>.)

Purpose

The plan updates prior lake management plans (1985, 2008) to protect Geneva Lake's water quality, ecological integrity, recreational value, and economic importance. It provides a science-based, multi-jurisdictional framework for coordinated action by municipalities, agencies, nonprofits, and lake users.

1. Current Condition of Geneva Lake

A. Overall Status

- Geneva Lake remains a high-quality, deep "two-story" lake with strong recreational and ecological value.
- Water clarity is exceptionally high, but this masks emerging nutrient risks.
- The lake is resilient, but stressors are increasing.

B. Key Physical Characteristics

- 5,262 acres; max depth ~ 140 ft; long water retention time (~ 14 years).
- Small watershed-to-lake ratio (~ 2.5:1), reducing vulnerability compared to typical Wisconsin lakes.
- Heavily developed shoreline (~ 20 miles), with high pier density and intense recreational use.

2. Major Issues Identified

A. Water Quality & Nutrients

- Phosphorus is the primary limiting nutrient and the dominant longterm risk.

see Executive Summary, pages 6-7

Executive Summary

- Surface phosphorus levels are generally stable, but:
 - Deep-water (hypolimnetic) phosphorus is increasing, indicating internal loading.
 - Internal phosphorus release occurs during late-summer anoxic conditions.
- Chloride concentrations are steadily rising, primarily from:
 - Road salt
 - Water softenersLevels now exceed thresholds known to impact aquatic life.
- Climate change is lengthening stratification periods, increasing:
 - Anoxia
 - Internal nutrient recycling
 - Risk of harmful algal blooms

B. Tributary Impacts (Bigfoot Creek in Particular)

- Bigfoot Creek is the largest single contributor of pollutants to the lake.
- Chronic problems include:
 - Extremely high phosphorus, ammonia, iron
 - Low dissolved oxygen
 - Red/orange water caused by iron-phosphorus cycling in degraded wetlands
- Scientific evidence indicates:
 - Wetland degradation and invasive cattail dominance, not legacy landfills, are the primary drivers.
- Bigfoot Creek is officially listed as phosphorus-impaired under the Clean Water Act.

C. Invasive Species

- Zebra Mussels are long-established
- Quagga mussels confirmed (first inland lake in Wisconsin), likely responsible for:
 - Increased water clarity
 - Masking nutrient enrichment
- Starry stonewort is present and expanding:
 - Difficult or impossible to eradicate
 - Requires longterm containment and monitoring
- Eurasian watermilfoil remains present but relatively stable.

D. Aquatic Plants

- Lake supports a diverse and mostly healthy native plant community.
- Increased abundance of nutrient-responsive species (e.g., forked duckweed) suggests rising nutrient availability.
- Mechanical, manual, and limited chemical controls are discussed—whole-lake chemical treatment is discouraged.

E. Fisheries & Habitat

- Geneva Lake supports:
 - A nationally significant cisco population (cold-water forage fish)
 - Strong lake trout, walleye, and bass fisheries
- Cisco habitat is increasingly constrained by warming temperatures and reduced deep-water oxygen.
- Nearshore fish diversity has declined in some areas, linked to:
 - Shoreline hardening

- Pier density
- Boat wake impacts

3. Climate Change Implications

- Rising temperatures and heavier precipitation events are already affecting:
 - Ice cover duration
 - Runoff volumes
 - Stream erosion
 - Nutrient delivery
- Management must shift toward resilience and adaptation, not historical norms.

4. Recommended Management Strategies

A. Watershed & Tributary Actions (Highest Priority)

- Restore and re-function degraded wetlands (especially Bigfoot Creek).
- Implement agricultural BMPs:
 - Cover crops
 - Nutrient management
 - Grassed waterways
- Improve stormwater detention, infiltration, and erosion control.
- Reduce legacy hydrologic modifications (tiling, channelization).

B. In-lake Management

- Continue intensive water quality monitoring.
- Evaluate internal phosphorus loading over time.
- Avoid aggressive whole-lake herbicide use.
- Protect deep-water oxygen conditions critical for cisco.

C. Invasive Species Control

- Focus on prevention and containment, not eradication.
- Expand Clean Boats, Clean Waters and decontamination programs.
- Monitor starry stonewort annually and respond early to new colonies.

D. Shoreline & Recreation Management

- Encourage natural shoreline buffers.
- Reduce wake impacts through ordinance review and boater education.
- Balance access with ecological protection.

E. Governance & Funding

- Strengthen coordination among:
 - Municipalities
 - GLEA, GLC, GLA
 - State and federal agencies
- Explore more durable governance and funding structures (e.g., enhanced inter-municipal authority).
- Aggressively pursue grants for watershed restoration and monitoring.

5. Bottom Line

Geneva Lake is still a premier lake—but it is at an inflection point.

- Water clarity is excellent, but nutrient pressures are rising.
- Tributary-driven pollution and internal loading are the key longterm threats.
- Climate change and invasive species amplify risks.
- The lake's future depends on decisive watershed action, wetland restoration, and coordinated governance, not cosmetic in-lake fixes.

GLA ANNUAL MEETING Minutes

Saturday, July 26, 2025

Big Foot Country Club

Fontana, Wisconsin

9:30 a.m.

WELCOME – President Lynn Grayson welcomed and called the membership meeting of the Association to order at 9:35 a.m. to applause from the audience in recognition of the 90th anniversary of the Association.

Grayson recognized the attendance of Alder Cathy Stoodley from the City of Lake Geneva, President Patrick Kenny from the Village of Fontana on Geneva Lake (and a GLA Board member), and President Adam Jaramillo from the Village of Williams Bay.

ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION FOUNDATION – President Carol Zimmermann noted that the EEF is an affiliate of the GLA envisioned and organized in 1980 by Thomas E. Reynolds to reward environmental scholarship, support outdoor education for children, and provide grants for research and student involvement in environmental issues.

EEF Board members identified 14 scholarship and grant recipients for 2025, 12 of whom were present for recognition. The scholars were recent graduates of area high schools, undergrads, grad students, and a teacher. Zimmermann asked the parents, grandparents, sisters, and brothers of the students to stand for applause and thanked Grayson for the GLA's moral and financial support.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT – Grayson introduced and welcomed Holly Baseman to the Geneva Lake area as the new director of the GLEA. Grayson thanked Keith Gerlach from the LG Library for researching 90 years of GLA articles printed in the LG Regional news. Over the years, GLA has been the "Lake Geneva Homeowners Protective Association," "The Geneva Lake Property Owners Association," the "Geneva Lake Civic Association," and finally, in 1980, the "Geneva Lake Association." It has taken different forms over the years, but GLA's mission has always been focused on water quality and working with the local residents to protect the lake and our community. It was in 1937 that the GLA agreed to place numbers at the entrance to all residences around the lake and on the piers to assist fire and emergency responders. That numbering continues today in the GLA Directory. In 1942, one of the publications that GLA was best known for was called the Consolidated Timetables Book. It was a train schedule between Chicago and Lake Geneva, but more importantly, it was a train schedule that had not only the times, but it told you which cars were air conditioned, which one was a tavern car, and which one had food!

GLA has Directories that date back to 1941, and more recent publications include the GLA Guardian newsletter and GLA Waves email program. The Guardian has become larger and more focused on water quality, and the Waves presents timely information, most recently regarding water levels during the dam repairs, algae blooms, membership renewal reminders, and meeting information. Expect the next issue of the Guardian in September. A spring issue this year was a general update on lake issues.

GLA has had a busy year, focusing on water quality and review, evaluation, and comment on draft chapters of the Geneva Lake Management Plan as being constructed by SEWRPC. The year has been more so than ever a year of collaboration. The activity this year has encouraged GLA to strengthen its collaborations with its lake partners including GLEA, Water Safety Patrol, Geneva Lake Conservancy, Geneva Lake Level Corporation, SEWRPC, Water Alliance, the Walworth County Lake Association, and Wisconsin Lakes.

Grayson praised the GLA Executive Committee, thanking Mission Chair Frank Voris, Nomination Chair Jim Gee, Mark Lillie and Tom Nickols for their work on the GLMP, Legal Chair Jack Goggin, and Executive Secretary Smith.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE REPORTS:

GLA—Chairman Jim Gee proposed the following nominees, which were approved unanimously (Stuhley/Happ):

GLA Directors with three-year terms to expire in 2028: Brigid Cashman, Brian Griffith, James McAvoy, Robert Morava, Thomas Nickols, Paul Darley, Karl Otzen, and William Duncan; and Frost Williams for a two-year term to expire in 2027. Gee thanked retiring directors Dana Hagenah and Sally Jouris for their years of service. The board previously named Jouris an Honorary Director as she served on the board for 27 years, many of which as Secretary. Gee announced that President Grayson, Vice President Gardiner, Secretary Jones, Treasurer Morava, and Executive Secretary Smith were re-elected or appointed for another year.

EEF — EEF directors are elected by the membership of GLA. Grayson announced the slate comprised of Barb Obligato and Tami Buntrock for a first term ending in 2026, Martin Pankau for a first term ending in 2027, Jenny Grunow, Jenny Heaton, and John Olson for second terms ending in 2028, and Dr. Sarah Walton for a first term ending in 2028. These were approved unanimously (Zimmermann/James Reynolds). The EEF thanked retiring directors Gil Kirkpatrick, Mike Giovingo, Casey Burmeister, and Robert Rowe for their service. Recently elected EEF officers are President Carol Zimmermann, Vice President John Olson, and Secretary Treasurer Carla Olson.

GENERAL REPORTS:

Lake Geneva Water Safety Patrol: Director Ted Pankau and Brigid Cashman reported a busy year again this year, with the 80 employees including lifeguards performing many pullouts that saved lives, and responding to many boating distress calls. Boating safety education is key for the Patrol, and 700 kids took swimming and safety classes. The Patrol offers the only in-person boat license courses in the area, which they feel is much better than the on-line courses available. Everyone born after January 1, 1989 must have a license in their possession while operating a boat in Wisconsin.

WSP has started working with the Geneva Lake Sailing School this year to promote safety as well as with Ladies on the Lake, a Gage Marine program for teaching boating skills. WSP also offers safety programs at the lake association piers.

ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION FOUNDATION, INC.

MISSION: The Environmental Education Foundation supports educational outreach that inspires and equips our local students and community to value and protect the lake.

Connections... for the future of Geneva Lake

Each year, as an affiliate of the GLA, we at EEF joyfully bring you a celebration of college scholarships for local students that you – and other donors – support. Donations to EEF also mean that elementary school students are introduced to outdoor education programs, and teachers have grant funds to provide hands-on learning experiences for their students. But this year, your donations funded a new and amazing experience.

*The local connections
I made today are invaluable!*
Kristin Rahe
(Fontana teacher)

For the first time, EEF hosted a “Freshwater Careers” workshop for teachers from Badger, Big Foot, Fontana, and Williams Bay. The presentation by the Freshwater Collaborative of Wisconsin provided curriculum aimed at inspiring students to consider lake-focused careers. However, the highlight of the workshop was a networking session that linked teachers with local lake-focused businesses and organizations.

Ryan Cardinal at Teacher Networking Session

*Marty Pankau (EEF) &
Jon Duggan, Workshop
Sponsor*

Teachers have shared that their students are interested in the lake but cannot envision a future in a Geneva-Lake-focused career. In this workshop, teachers were able to find living examples of successful professionals in lake-focused businesses - exactly what they needed to make lake-career connections for their students.

If you attended the teacher-business discussions, you would have seen the sparks of connection as the teachers found human resources upon whom they could call for speakers in their classes and clubs, mentors for student projects, advocates for their grant applications, and intern and job placement prospects for their students.

It's amazing how many local freshwater connections there are for our students and teachers to feel inspired!
Beth Tadlock
(Williams Bay teacher)

For the business people, the ardor and commitment of these teachers was a reminder that the future of the lake rests with the next generation. It reminded them – and should remind us all – that protecting Geneva Lake is a community endeavor. Each one of us can find and play an important role. On behalf of the foundation - and those who love the lake – thank you for all you do!

GLA Sponsors Placement of Lake Path Signs Around Geneva Lake

With the approval of the communities around the lake, GLA has erected a number of Lake Path signs where the walking public can find them. The Board of Directors replaced those signs. Some had deteriorated, and some were missing. Additional signs have since been requested and added. In 2023, GLA replaced the signs to better clarify the intended use of the Lake Path. Coordinates of the signs and indicated their placements on the map. The map shows the painted wood signs, mounted on steel or wood posts, is shown. The signs will be replaced with those carrying the revised message.

We are all aware that the public, by tradition of well over a century, has walked completely around the lake, even though it passes over private property. We are very careful not to violate the trust given them by lake owners.

We know, however, that there are abuses by a few, some of which are not permitted. The signs, strategically located on the walking path, remind us of the rules.

Lake Path signs are available to home owners or property owners who are members of GLA. Please contact the GLA office if you see a sign in need of replacement.

of Lake Path Signs Lake Shore

the Geneva Lake Association several years ago enters onto private land. In 2013, the GLA Board and improvements were made to the message. In 2017, the GLA revised the language on some of the signs. GLA volunteers have recorded photos with GPS along the path shown on the map above. The wording of these attractively designed signs is shown at right. Eventually all of the existing signs will be replaced.

After 100 years, is allowed to walk the shore path on private property. Most people respect the privilege granted by the shore property owners.

Sometimes because they are not aware of the implied permission, remind the public of what is allowed and what is not.

owner associations at cost, subject to the approval of the board of replacement.

LAKE SHORE PATHS

The Lake Shore path on Geneva Lake has existed for more than 100 years. There seems to be no specific judicial ruling as to the status of this Lake Shore path. It is believed to consist of an easement in favor of the public, and upon this basis the following answers are offered:

Question: Where does this easement exist?

Answer: It exists only upon the location in which it has been used without change or variation for the prescriptive period of twenty years, provided by our statute, although a slight variation at a given point will not impair such rights.

Question: Does an owner of property have a right to materially alter its course or character, even if such alteration be of public benefit?

Answer: No. If, however, an owner does make such change and if the public continues in the use of the easement in its altered condition for a length of time sufficient to show acquiescence in the change, effective complaint cannot afterward be made because of the change.

Change in a structure, however, which does not impair the easement but tends to ornament it, does not constitute any violation of the right owed by the owner to the public.

Where the owner alters the location of the easement, as to its direction and grade, such as the case where he deflects it from its original course and causes it to descend a bank, possibly supplying steps or some other means, although the user of the easement is not obliged to travel upon the path as changed, he may do so, and when he does so, it is by the license or implied consent of the owner.

There seems to be no duty of an owner toward a license, beyond the avoidance of any active, willful act, structure or contrivance which might injure the license.

Question: Can an owner be held liable for one injured by a danger concealed only by the darkness of night?

Answer: No. It is, however, strongly recommended that in case of changes made by owners as to the surface, course or level of the path crossing his property, it be so supplied so that travel thereon be not more hazardous than that part of the path discontinued. Proper guard rails are suggested.

It is very dangerous to prescribe limitations on liability and to define corresponding rights as applied to any specific instance. The above statements are on the general principles involving the relative rights of the public and liabilities of owners of Lake Shore property.

The following answers to questions are based on the opinion of legal counsel:

Question: Is Geneva Lake a navigable lake?

Answer: Yes. It is so designated by Government Survey.

Question: In whom does title rest?

Answer: Title to the bed of the lake is vested in the State of Wisconsin, which holds title as trustee for the public to the end of maintaining and preserving the rights of the public in navigation thereof.

Question: What are the riparian owner's rights?

Answer: Riparian owners own their land on a navigable lake in fee simple down to low water mark. Their rights are based on their ownership and title to the banks. This ownership gives to them the exclusive privilege to the shore for the purpose of access to their land and the water. These rights include the right of using the shore for the building of piers extending into the water beyond low water mark, walls to prevent loss of soil by erosion, waves, etc.

Question: What rights and control does a riparian owner have over his private pier?

Answer: Private piers constructed and abutting on the private shore property constitute the sole and private property of the owner of the adjoining land; such owner is as free to prohibit the entrance upon such pier of unauthorized persons (except in emergency of storms, distress, etc.) as he is to deny his home to them. His dominion and control over the shore line is of the same nature, subject only to the right of navigation over the waters of the lake.

Question: May an unauthorized person moor a boat near a private pier and may he make a landing on private property?

Answer: No unauthorized person may moor a boat or a raft in front of private property in any manner that might interfere with reasonable navigation, to and from such property at any time. It is believed that the choice of an owner or his authorized friends as to the course of water ingress to or ingress from the property should rest entirely with the owner or his friends so using the property. Owner of such private property may notify any unauthorized person to remove such boat or raft, or may remove such boat or raft or cause same to be removed, in a manner not doing more harm to the boat than must necessarily result from its act of removal. Care should be exercised by the owner to avoid unreasonable action in the matter and to avoid further any manner of carrying out the removal of the boat from which malice could be inferred.

Annual Meeting

Geneva Lake Law Enforcement Agency (GLLEA): Sergeant Craig Rasmussen noted that the GLLEA is funded by four lake municipalities and is staffed by 13 officers and seven community service officers. Two boats are each manned by two officers, one of which at least is a police officer. The Agency enforces state statutes for lake offenses which do not include domestic issues, invasive species complaints, etc. Such are referred to the land police or appropriate agencies. Rasmussen offered statistics from 2024:

Municipality	Citations	Warnings
Fontana	34	27
Wms. Bay	45	23
Linn	66	44
Lake Geneva	21	17

Training takes place in May, and scheduled patrols run from June through September. Boats remain on standby until the piers have to come out, and calls for emergencies can be made by calling 911. Other calls are accepted by the Lake Geneva Police Department. Citizens who make complaints have to be ready to go to court as witnesses unless the infraction is seen by an officer. Speeding and loud boat noise are common complaints, and boat owners can be required to satisfy a noise test. Citations for safety equipment and other safety issues are always given to the operator, as that is the person in charge of following the regulations.

Geneva Lake Dam: Geneva Lake Level Corp. (GLLC) President Karl Otzen outlined the history of the corporation from the time the not-for-profit took over the dam in 1894 to control the level of the lake. There is a passive spillway and gate at Flat Iron Park, and another gate near the museum, which used to power a mill. The GLLC is funded mainly by four municipalities around the lake. Lake level is controlled automatically by the spillway over which water flows out and into the White River. Often the lake level is 4 to 6 inches above the spillway, thus four to six inches above the normal level. Sometimes in dry weather the level is only an inch above the spillway which causes people to think, erroneously, that the water level has been artificially lowered by opening the floodgates. Last fall the level was mechanically lowered to facilitate repairs to the spillway, and once the repairs were done, nature presented the lake with a dry spell which caused concern around the lake. It took a while for Mother Nature to get the lake back on track.

Geneva Lake Environmental Agency (GLEA): Director Holly Baseman noted that she came from Green Bay where she worked for the environmental agency and is pleased to find so many organizations in the Geneva Lake area working together for the benefit of the lake. The agency is involved all aspects of lake quality related to E. coli levels, algae blooms, invasive species, plankton levels, phosphorus levels, fish populations, clean boats, education, and boating usage. GLEA actions include E. Coli testing, installation of fish cribs, algae identification and notifications, education and information meetings with schools and communities, use of specialists, see Annual Meeting, pages 68-69

recommendation of good practices such as wake surfing regulations and partnering with other local organizations such as DNR, SEWRPC, universities, GLA, and GLC. Baseman noted that Geneva Lake is healthy but has symptoms that need to be addressed. GLEA is proactive, constantly assessing, adjusting, trying to act on what is happening.

Real Estate Trends: Director Tricia Forbeck from Compass Realty provided a hand-out identifying some of the recent residential sales and residences for sale around the lake. This is available by request to the GLA office.

LAKE USE / WATER QUALITY CONCERNS:

State-Wide Wake Boat Legislation and Litigation — GLA Past President Jack Goggin noted that 92 northern Wisconsin municipalities have passed ordinances restricting or banning wake surfing, one of which is the Town of Scott which has four lakes in its jurisdiction. A few wake surf boat owners have filed suit against the Town of Scott. The basis of the suit relies on the presumption that the ordinance was not passed using proper procedures. The plaintiffs have financial resources and are backed by the water sports industry lobbying group.

Efforts in the Wisconsin legislature to codify regulations such as requiring wake surfing to be done at least 500 feet from shore were tabled and appear dead in the water. Because no action is likely from the state legislature, environmental groups are urging municipalities to pass local ordinances. Geneva Lake has the depth that potentially could provide environmentally safe use of wake surfing with the appropriate lake-specific restrictions, but a lake-wide ordinance here would be difficult because the lake is within the jurisdiction of five separate municipalities.

Concern for the issue has spread rapidly, and recently was featured in a cover article in the Wall Street Journal.

Geneva Lake Management Plan (GLMP) Update — Justin Poinsett, biologist representing the Southeastern Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission (SEWRPC) identified the goals of the GLMP as protecting water quality, making sure folks can have a safe fun time enjoying the lake, and improving the aquatic plant and fisheries of the lake. The plan is partially funded by a DNR grant to the Geneva Lake Conservancy, and is actively involving many lake associations mentioned in this meeting.

Plan elements include watershed characteristics, water quality and pollutant sources to the lake, aquatic plant community, community fisheries, recreational use, and then lake management. Data collection efforts are finished. Draft sections were released to the various lake partners for feedback. Once edits are done, the entire draft plan will be available for public review and comment. Once that is complete, the DNR will review for final approval.

Major plan topics include:

- Watershed issues from more development and stronger storm flows
- Reduction in winter ice cover affecting plants and fisheries

- Water clarity related to phosphorus versus zebra and quagga mussels
- High salt concentrations presumably from road salt applications
- Health of tributaries
- Specific invasive plants such as Starry Stonewort and creatures such as zebra mussels
- Health of Cisco population habitat and game fish
- Increasing of boat density and usage

The GLMP will present four options for implementing the plan and its goals. Geneva Lake is fortunate to have so many organizations working together in a common pursuit of lake quality, so the first option is to institutionalize the current roles that each organization is playing and continue to support and expand those roles. The second option is to reinforce the GLEA, which is already designated as a lake management agency. The third option is to create a lake district with authority to tax for lake management. The fourth option is to form a water commission. Water commissions are rare, as they must be written into state law.

GLA past President Lillie spoke for the association, expressing thanks to SEWRPC for doing this work on behalf of the community. Once the final draft is released, all residents are encouraged to review it and respond to it. Lillie thanked the GLA membership for their financial support, as funds that GLA gets from members donors is put back into different agencies, including Geneva Lake Conservancy, Geneva Lake Environmental Agency, Geneva Lake Level Corporation, and others to advance our interest in preserving and maintaining and improving the quality of this environment that the community is blessed to have.

Tom Nickols spoke on behalf of the Geneva Lake Conservancy and thanked the Water Alliance for pulling together the several lake organizations in a common goal, and thanked the hard work of GLC and SEWRPC for their efforts on the GLMP. Nickols reported that GLC has protected 3600 acres in Walworth County from future development and has been successful with the Keep It Blue efforts, with many area residents pledging to limit phosphorus on their properties. The Conservancy continues to support the Rohner Fishing Park in Williams Bay, introducing youngsters to the concept of conservation in a fun way.

Lillie then led the membership in appreciation for the efforts of Charles Colman for getting the community and local organizations together for these common goals.

ADJOURNMENT:

GLA President Grayson closed the meeting noting one of the greatest strengths of GLA is the ability to energize the members and resources on critical larger projects like water quality, including the lake management plan. GLA will have an important role in this plan that will dictate some of the activities around the lake for the coming years.

Respectfully submitted,
James A. Smith
Executive Secretary
